This is a Summary Plan Description (SPD) of the benefits available, effective January 1, 2011, to eligible employees under The Avaya Inc. Life Insurance Plans (Life Insurance Plans). More detailed information is provided in the Life Insurance Plan Document. In all instances, the Life Insurance Plan Document will control and govern the operation of the Life Insurance Plans.

The Board of Directors of Avaya Inc. (or its delegate) reserves the right to modify, suspend or terminate the Life Insurance Plans at any time, subject to the terms of applicable collective bargaining agreements. Questions regarding your benefits should be addressed to the Plan Administrator. Because of the many detailed provisions of the Life Insurance Plans, no one other than the Plan Administrator is authorized to advise you as to your benefits. For this reason, the Avaya Participating Company is not bound by statements made by anyone or any entity other than the Plan Administrator or its authorized delegates.

Please note that participation in the Life Insurance Plans is neither an offer of employment nor a guarantee of future employment for any period of time with an Avaya Participating Company

TERMS YOU SHOULD KNOW

These are words and phrases used throughout the Summary Plan Description that have a specific meaning under the Life Insurance Plans. This section explains those terms so you can better understand your benefits. The terms are printed in boldface and are defined here.

Accidental Death and Dismemberment (AD&D): accidental death and dismemberment insurance. You receive Company-paid accidental death and dismemberment insurance equal to one times your total annual pay, and you may purchase optional additional coverage for yourself or your dependents.

Actively at work: you are considered to be actively at work under the Life Insurance Plans if:

- You are actually present on the job, or
- It is a regularly scheduled day off, a scheduled vacation day or a paid holiday, as long as you were actively at work on the most recent prior day that was a regularly scheduled work day for you, and that was not a scheduled vacation day or paid holiday.

For dependent life and dependent AD&D insurance, you are considered to be actively at work if:

- You satisfy one of the above conditions, or
- You are receiving benefits under The Avaya Inc. Sickness and Accident Disability Benefit Plan.

After-tax Premium Payments: premium payments are taken from your pay after applicable federal, state and local taxes are withheld.

Annual enrollment: the period of time each year designated by the Avaya Participating Company in which you can generally make changes in your benefits for reasons other than a qualified status change. Elections made during annual enrollment are effective on the first day of the following calendar year or when proof of insurability is approved by the Insurer, whichever is later.

Annual rate of pay: your annual rate of pay is 52 times your normal weekly adjusted rate of pay (hourly rate times 40).

Avaya Health and Benefits Decision Center: the resource to call to enroll, make changes in your coverage or ask questions about your Life Insurance Plans. See "Important Contacts."

Cash Accumulation Fund: as a participant in the Supplementary Life Insurance Plan for represented employees, you have the option of contributing to a personal Cash Accumulation Fund. This fund is not subject to income taxes while your contributions remain in your account. You may take loans and withdrawals from the fund. The fund earns interest at a competitive rate; although this rate may vary each year, it is guaranteed never to be lower than 3%.

Children: include your biological children (excluding stillborn children), and/or legally adopted children (including any child in the formal legal adoption process, regardless of residence), stepchildren living with you, and children living with you for whom you or your lawful spouse or domestic partner is the legal guardian (excluding “wards of the state” or “foster children”). A child who is in the armed forces of any country is not eligible.

See Class I dependents and domestic partnership dependent.

Class I dependents: include your lawful spouse and each unmarried child through December 31st of the year in which the child reaches age 23.

To be eligible, a child must be:

- Your biological child and/or your legally adopted child living with you, including any child in the formal legal process of adoption, regardless of residence,
- A stepchild living with you, or
- A child living with you for whom you or your lawful spouse is the legal guardian. This does not include “wards of the state” or “foster children.”

Class I dependents also include each unmarried child of any age who is determined to be eligible by the applicable medical Claims Administrator by meeting all of the following criteria:

- Permanently incapable of self-support,
- Physically or mentally handicapped, and
- Fully dependent on you for support.

To be covered as Class I dependents, children beyond the age of 23 years must be certified for coverage by the applicable medical Claims Administrator under The Avaya Inc. Medical Expense Plan. You must complete an application form available from your applicable medical Claims Administrator and submit it for approval to the address listed on the form.

No coverage is available for a child over age 23 who is incapacitated for a short time due to illness or accident (e.g., a broken leg).

A family member who is in the armed forces of any country may not be considered a dependent for purposes of the Life Insurance Plans.

Company-paid basic coverage: the amount of your basic life and basic AD&D insurance that the Avaya Participating Company provides at no cost to you. Each coverage equals one times your total annual pay. The amount of your Company-paid basic coverage begins to reduce when you reach age 66.

Contingent beneficiary(ies): receives the death benefits under the basic life, supplementary life, basic AD&D and supplementary AD&D insurance only if none of your primary beneficiary(ies) is living when you, the eligible employee, die.

Covered: eligible under the terms of the Life Insurance Plans. "Covered" is often used to modify other terms. A covered person is one who is enrolled and eligible for benefits under the Life Insurance Plans.

Covered dependent: a Class I dependent, domestic partner or domestic partnership dependent who is covered as the dependent of an eligible employee.

Domestic Partner: For Plan purposes, an individual (same-gender or opposite-gender) can be your domestic partner if you satisfy either the government registration requirement or the affidavit requirement and submit the necessary documentation.

Domestic Partner Government Registration: An individual is your domestic partner if you satisfy one of the following requirements and submit a copy of the applicable government registration:

- You have complied with any state or local registration process for domestic partners;
- You reside in a state that recognizes same-gender marriages and you are legally married to your same-gender domestic partner under the laws of that state; or
- You reside in a state that recognizes same-gender civil unions, and you have legally entered into such a civil union.

Note: An individual will cease to be your domestic partner when a copy of the applicable government documentation terminating your domestic partnership is filed with the Avaya Health and Benefits Decision Center.

Domestic Partner Affidavit: An individual is your domestic partner if you complete and file with the Avaya Pension Service Center a notarized Domestic Partner Affidavit and any other required documentation, and you and your domestic partner:

- Reside in the same household as a member of that household,
- Are age 18 or older,

- Have mental sufficiency to enter into a valid contract,
- Are not related to each other by blood,
- Are not legally married to any other person,
- Have a close and committed personal relationship with each other and have no such relationship with anyone else, and
- Have joint responsibility for each other's welfare and financial obligations.

Note: An individual will cease to be your domestic partner when a notarized Domestic Partner Termination Affidavit is completed and filed with the Avaya Health and Benefits Decision Center.

Domestic partnership dependent: is the natural or adopted child of a domestic partner, a child whom the domestic partner is in the formal, legal process of adopting, or a child living with you for whom the domestic partner is the legal guardian. The child must otherwise meet the definition of an eligible child as a Class I dependent.

Eligibility date: the first day of the month in which an eligible employee attains six months of net credited service.

Eligible dependents: your eligible Class I dependents, domestic partner and domestic partnership dependents.

Eligible employee: a regular, active, full-time or part-time, represented employee with at least six months of net credited service who works for a Participating Company.

Individuals who are not paid from the U.S. payroll of an Avaya Participating Company, who are employed by an independent company (such as an employment agency), or whose services are rendered pursuant to an agreement excluding participation in benefit plans are not eligible to participate in the Life Insurance Plans.

FMLA: the Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993, as amended.

Lawful spouse: a person who is recognized as the lawful husband or lawful wife of an active employee under the laws of the state or jurisdiction of the eligible employee's domicile. A lawful spouse who is in the armed forces of any country is not eligible.

Loss of a foot: means that the foot is completely severed at or above the ankle joint.

Loss of a hand: means that the hand is completely severed at or above the wrist joint.

Loss of hearing: means total and irrecoverable loss of hearing in both ears.

Loss of sight in one eye: means that the eye is entirely blind and that no sight can be restored in that eye.

Loss of speech: means total and irrecoverable loss of speech.

Loss of the thumb and index finger on the same hand: means that all of the phalanges of the thumb and index finger are severed.

Net credited service: your current continuous service plus all service credited under the service bridging rules (including mandatory portability, if applicable) of The Avaya Inc. Pension Plan and/or The Avaya Inc. Pension Plan for Salaried Employees.

Avaya Participating Company: Avaya Inc. and such other companies that have elected to participate in the Life Insurance Plans, with the prior approval of Avaya Inc.

Pre-tax Premium Payments: premium payments taken from your pay before federal and most state and local taxes are withheld.

Primary beneficiary(ies): the person(s), organization, estate or trust named to receive the death benefits for life insurance and AD&D insurance if the covered employee dies.

Qualified status change: as permitted under federal regulations, qualified changes in status include the following:

Qualified Status Change	Description
Marital Status	A change in your legal marital status, including marriage, death of your spouse, divorce or annulment.
Number of Family Members	Events that change the number of eligible family members, including birth, adoption, placement for adoption or death.
Employment Status	A termination or commencement of employment by you or your spouse.
Work Schedule	A reduction or increase in hours of employment by you, your lawful spouse or Domestic Partner including a switch between part-time and full-time, or the start of or return from an unpaid leave of absence.
Eligible Dependent Meets or No Longer Meets the Eligibility Requirements	An event that causes a member of your family to meet or no longer meet the Plan's eligibility requirements for coverage. This may include a child reaching the maximum age for coverage, etc.

Avaya Participating Companies also considers corresponding changes in domestic partner and/or domestic partnership dependents as a qualified status change.

The Internal Revenue Service states that you may change coverage during the year if you have a qualified change in status. Qualified status changes must be reported to the Avaya Health and Benefits Decision Center (see "Important Contacts") within 31 days of the event.

You will be asked to provide documentation of the qualified status change. Examples of the necessary documentation include: a copy of the divorce decree, documentation of domestic partnership, marriage license, birth certificate, or an adoption agreement.

Tobacco use: any use of tobacco at any time during the 12-month period before enrollment constitutes tobacco use. This includes cigarettes, cigars, pipes, chewing tobacco, and snuff. The amount of your life insurance benefit will be reduced if it is determined that you misrepresented yourself as a non-tobacco user when you enrolled in the Life Insurance Plans.

Total annual pay (TAP): used to determine the amount of life insurance available to you. Your total annual pay is your annual rate of pay, plus the annual Avaya Performance Award Target Payment amount, rounded to the next higher $1,000, as of September 10th of the prior Plan Year. For new hires, the total annual pay is calculated as of the date you are hired with the Avaya Participating Company.

PARTICIPATING IN THE PLAN

Who Is Eligible

You are eligible for basic life, supplementary life, basic AD&D and supplementary AD&D insurance under the Life Insurance Plans if you are an eligible employee (a regular, active, full-time or part-time, represented employee with at least six months of net credited service who works for an Avaya Participating Company).

If you are an eligible employee, you also may enroll your eligible dependents for dependent life and/or dependent AD&D insurance.

You have an opportunity to change supplementary and dependent life insurance coverages at any time during the year. However, certain changes may only be made each year during annual enrollment (see “Coverage Changes”).

How to Enroll

What you need to do to enroll for life insurance depends on whether you are:

- A newly eligible employee,
- An employee changing your existing coverage during an annual enrollment period, or
- An employee changing your existing coverage during the year due to a qualified status change (see “Coverage Changes if You Have a Qualified Status Change”).

Newly Eligible Employees

On the first day of the month in which you meet the eligibility requirements (see “Who Is Eligible”), you are automatically enrolled for basic life and basic AD&D insurance equal to one times your total annual pay. The Avaya Participating Company pays the full cost of basic life and basic AD&D coverage to provide you with this valuable protection. You may purchase additional levels of supplementary life and/or supplementary AD&D insurance coverage for yourself. You may also purchase dependent life and/or dependent AD&D insurance for your eligible dependents.

Enrollment information will be sent to your work e-mail address during the month in which you attain four months of net credited service. The e-mail will direct you to the Avaya Healthy Decisions Web site (www.AvayaHealthyDecisions.com), where you will find information about the coverage available for you and your eligible dependents, the cost, how to elect coverage for you or your eligible dependents and the date by which you must make your elections (usually within 31 days of when you reach six months of net credited service). You can make your enrollment elections online by logging onto the Avaya Healthy Decisions Web site at www.AvayaHealthyDecisions.com or by calling the Avaya Health and Benefits Decision Center.

After you receive the e-mail, you may:

- Elect to purchase supplementary life and/or supplementary AD&D insurance for yourself,
- Name a beneficiary (see “Name a Beneficiary”), and/or
- Enroll your eligible dependents for dependent life and/or dependent AD&D insurance.

Depending on the situation, you may be required to submit a Statement of Health for yourself or your lawful spouse or domestic partner when you enroll (see “Proof of Insurability”). Once coverage begins, your elections remain in effect for as long as you are eligible or until you make a change (see “Coverage Changes”).

Annual Enrollment

During annual enrollment, you will have an opportunity to select the benefits that best meet your needs for the coming year. Annual enrollment is held once a year, usually in the fall.

You will receive enrollment information, including the coverage options available to you and your eligible dependents under the Life Insurance Plans for the following year.

As long as you have six full months of net credited service by January 31st of the following year, elections made during the annual enrollment are effective on the first day of the following calendar year or when proof of insurability is approved by the Insurer (see “Important Contacts”), whichever is later.

In addition to annual enrollment, you also may make certain changes during the year (see “Coverage Changes”).

Confirmation Statements

A confirmation statement will be generated after you enroll or change benefits during annual enrollment or at any other time during the year. You can obtain a copy of your confirmation statement at www.avayahealthydecisions.com. Be sure to review the information carefully and report any discrepancies immediately to the Avaya Health and Benefits Decision Center (see “Important Contacts”).

If You Do Not Enroll

If you were enrolled the previous year, but you do not elect to make any changes during annual enrollment, the same coverage options you and your dependents (if applicable) had the previous year will continue. However, if the rates increase, you will pay the increased amount. Your cost will also change if your total annual pay changes. You should review to ensure all dependents remain eligible for any dependent coverages.

If you are a newly eligible employee and you do not make any elections by the date specified in your enrollment letter, you will automatically be enrolled for basic life and basic AD&D insurance equal to one times your total annual pay. However, you will not be covered for any supplementary life or supplementary AD&D insurance and your dependents will not have any coverage. This level of coverage will continue until you make a change. For more information, see “Changing Your Coverage During the Year” and “Annual Enrollment.”

If You and Your Spouse or Domestic Partner Both Work for an Avaya Participating Company

If you and your lawful spouse or domestic partner work for an Avaya Participating Company and are eligible for the Life Insurance Plans, both of you may be covered as an Avaya Participating Company employees up to the maximum coverage allowed (see “Amount of Coverage Available”).

If you and your lawful spouse or domestic partner elects dependent coverage for your eligible dependents, each of you may cover the other as a dependent and one or both of you may cover your eligible dependent children.

Name a Beneficiary

When you enroll, you will need to make a beneficiary designation which you will choose a beneficiary(ies) to receive the death benefits on your basic life, supplementary life, basic AD&D and supplementary AD&D insurance. You may update your beneficiaries online at the Avaya Healthy Decisions Web Site (www.AvayaHealthyDecisions.com). Access the appropriate link on the website. You may choose one or more individuals, your estate, almost any organization, or a trust as your beneficiary. You must choose the same beneficiary(ies) for basic life, basic AD&D and supplementary AD&D insurance. You must complete a separate beneficiary form for supplementary life insurance, and this beneficiary designation may be different. Your beneficiary designation becomes effective upon receipt of the properly completed form, whether online or on paper. You may change your beneficiary(ies) at any time (see “How to Change Your Beneficiary” below.)

If you name more than one beneficiary, be sure to indicate the share payable to each one. If you do not indicate this, your beneficiaries will share equally.

If you are enrolled in the Supplementary Life Insurance Plan, any balance in your Cash Accumulation Fund will be added to your life insurance coverage and paid, tax-free, to your beneficiary(ies).

Generally, death benefits are paid to your primary beneficiary(ies). If none of your primary beneficiary(ies) is living when you die, payment will be made to your contingent beneficiary(ies) in equal shares unless you indicated otherwise. If none of your beneficiaries are living when you die, pursuant to your will and any applicable state law payment may be made to your lawful spouse, domestic partner, children, parents, siblings or to your estate.

However, if you have assigned your benefits, refer to the section “Benefits Can Be Assigned.”

You are the beneficiary for any dependent life insurance, dependent AD&D insurance and the AD&D benefits from your basic and supplementary AD&D insurance (other than death benefits).

How to Change Your Beneficiary

You may change your beneficiary at any time, unless you assign your benefits (see “Benefits Can Be Assigned”).

To change your beneficiary, use the appropriate links on the website to access the online beneficiary designation form at www.AvayaHealthyDecisions.com or contact the Avaya Health and Benefits Decision Center (see “Important Contacts”) for the appropriate form(s). There are separate beneficiary elections for basic life insurance and supplementary life insurance. If you complete a paper form, return it to the Insurer at the address on the form. Your changes take effect on the date your form is either received by the Insurer or submitted online. If you have completed a paper form and made beneficiary designations online, the beneficiaries elected most recently will be the beneficiaries of record.

WHEN COVERAGE BEGINS

This section outlines the factors that determine when coverage begins if you enroll when you are first eligible. For information about when coverage begins for enrollments other than when you first become eligible, see “Coverage Changes” and “Annual Enrollment.”

When Employee Coverage Begins

Your Company-Paid Basic Life and Basic AD&D Insurance

You are automatically enrolled for your Company-paid basic coverage (basic life and basic AD&D insurance) of one times your total annual pay on the first day of the month in which you meet the eligibility requirements (see “Who Is Eligible”), provided you are actively at work on that day (see “You Must Be Actively at Work”).

Your Employee-Paid Insurance Coverages

Any employee-paid insurance coverages you elect become effective as follows, provided you are actively at work on the date the coverage is scheduled to begin (see “You Must Be Actively at Work”).

If You Elect Supplementary Life Insurance

- If you elect supplementary life insurance on or before your eligibility date, coverage becomes effective on your eligibility date (see “Who Is Eligible”).
- If you enroll within 31 days after your eligibility date, coverage becomes effective on the day you enroll.
- If you enroll more than 31 days after your eligibility date, you will be required to submit proof of insurability to the Insurer (see “Important Contacts”). In this case, coverage becomes effective on the date the Insurer approves your Statement of Health (see “Proof of Insurability”).

If You Elect Supplementary AD&D Insurance

- If you elect supplementary AD&D insurance on or before your eligibility date, coverage becomes effective on your eligibility date (see “Who Is Eligible”).
- If you enroll within 31 days after your eligibility date, coverage becomes effective on the date you elect coverage.

- If you do not enroll within 31 days after your eligibility date, no changes will be permitted until the next annual enrollment unless you have a qualified status change. For more information, see “Coverage Changes if You Have a Qualified Status Change” and “Annual Enrollment.”
- No proof of insurability is required for supplementary AD&D insurance.

When Dependent Coverage Begins

Any dependent insurance coverages you elect for your lawful spouse (or domestic partner) and/or eligible dependent begins as follows, provided you are actively at work on the date the coverage is scheduled to begin (see “You Must Be Actively at Work”).

If You Elect Dependent Life Insurance

- Coverage for your child(ren) becomes effective on the later of the following events: on the day you enroll or on the first day of the month in which you meet the eligibility requirements (see “Who Is Eligible”). It is not necessary to enroll additional child(ren) once you have elected dependent life insurance for your child(ren). Proof of insurability is not required for your child(ren) regardless of when you enroll them.
- If you elect a spouse coverage option under $50,000 on or before your eligibility date, your spouse’s coverage becomes effective on your eligibility date (see “Who Is Eligible”). Proof of insurability for your lawful spouse or domestic partner would not be required.
- If you elect a spouse coverage option under $50,000 within 31 days after your eligibility date, or within 31 days of your marriage, your spouse’s coverage becomes effective on the later of the following events: the day you enroll, your eligibility date or your date of marriage. Proof of insurability for your lawful spouse or domestic partner would not be required.
- If you elect the $50,000 spouse coverage option, or if you enroll your lawful spouse or domestic partner more than 31 days after he or she is first eligible, your spouse’s coverage will become effective on the date the Insurer (see “Important Contacts”) approves your spouse’s Proof of Insurability (see “Proof of Insurability”).

If You Elect Dependent AD&D Insurance

- If you elect dependent AD&D insurance for your eligible dependents on or before your eligibility date, coverage becomes effective on your eligibility date (see “Who Is Eligible”).

- If you elect coverage for your eligible dependents within 31 days after your eligibility date, coverage becomes effective on the day you enroll.
- If you do not elect coverage for your eligible dependents within 31 days of your eligibility date, no changes will be permitted until the next annual enrollment, unless you have a qualified status change. For more information, see “Coverage Changes if You Have a Qualified Status Change” and “Annual Enrollment.”
- Proof of insurability for dependent AD&D insurance is not required for your eligible dependents regardless of when you enroll them.

You Must Be Actively at Work

You must be actively at work on the date coverage for you or your eligible dependents are scheduled to begin or increase. If you are not actively at work on that date, coverage will begin or increase when you return to work.

AMOUNT OF COVERAGE AVAILABLE

Your Basic and Supplementary Life and AD&D Insurance

If you are eligible, the Avaya Participating Company automatically provides you with basic life and basic AD&D insurance of one times your total annual pay (TAP) at no cost to you. You also have the option of purchasing supplementary coverage.

The following coverages are available to you:

Type of Insurance	Who Can Be Covered	Amount of Coverage	When Benefits Are Paid	Who Receives Benefits	Who Pays the Cost
Basic Life*	You	1 x TAP	Your death	Your beneficiaries	The Avaya Participating Company
Supplementary Life	You	7 options, from 1 x TAP to 7 x TAP	Your death	Your beneficiaries	You
Basic AD&D *	You	1 x TAP	Certain accidental losses Your accidental death	You Your beneficiaries	The Avaya Participating Company The Avaya Participating Company
Supplementary AD&D	You	7 options, from 1 x TAP to 7 x TAP	Certain accidental losses Your accidental death	You Your beneficiaries	You You
*If you are still working when you reach age 66, the amount of your Company-paid basic coverage begins to reduce. For more information, see "If You Work Beyond Age 65."

The employee-paid options are completely independent of each other. This means you do not have to choose the same option for supplementary life insurance as you do for supplementary AD&D insurance.

Cash Accumulation Fund

If you are a participant in the Supplementary Life Insurance Plan, you have the option of contributing to a Cash Accumulation Fund. This is a personal fund in which you make fixed dollar contributions directly to the Insurer (see “Important Contacts”). The maximum amount you may contribute depends on your age and coverage amount.

The Cash Accumulation Fund earns a competitive interest rate that is guaranteed never to be lower than 4%. Your Cash Accumulation Fund is not taxed unless you withdraw more than you have contributed. You may withdraw or borrow against the money in your fund at any time. The balance in your Cash Accumulation Fund may be used to pay for your cost of insurance in retirement or to purchase paid-up insurance. Any balance remaining in your fund at the time of your death will be added to your life insurance amount and paid income tax-free to your beneficiaries.

Contact the Insurer (see “Important Contacts”) for more information on contributing to a Cash Accumulation Fund.

Dependent Life and Dependent AD&D Insurance

You may elect dependent life and/or dependent AD&D insurance for your eligible dependents. You pay the full cost for these coverages. The following coverage options are available.

DEPENDENT LIFE AND DEPENDENT AD&D INSURANCE OPTIONS
If You Elect to Cover	Dependent Life Insurance	Dependent AD&D Insurance
Your lawful spouse or domestic partner*	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • No coverage • $10,000 • $15,000 • $20,000 • $50,000 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • No coverage • $25,000 • $50,000 • $75,000 • $100,000
Your children	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • No coverage • $5,000 • $10,000 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • No coverage • $5,000 • $10,000
*In some cases, your lawful spouse or domestic partner may be required to submit a satisfactory Statement of Health (see “Proof of Insurability”). Proof of insurability does not apply for dependent AD&D insurance or for any coverage on your children.

These options are completely independent of each other. This means you do not have to choose the same option for dependent life as you do for dependent AD&D insurance. Benefits are payable to you if one of your covered dependents dies or sustains a covered loss.

About Pay and Insurance

The amount of your basic life, supplementary life, basic AD&D and supplementary AD&D insurance coverage is based on the total annual pay used to determine your premium cost.

How a Pay Change Affects Your Coverage

Since your total annual pay is calculated when you are hired or prior to annual enrollment, the amount of your coverage for basic life, basic AD&D, supplementary life and supplementary AD&D insurance will not change until the next Plan Year even if your annual rate of pay changes during the year.

A pay change will not affect any dependent coverage you may have since those amounts are not related to your total annual pay.

COVERAGE CHANGES

Changing Your Coverage During the Year

You may make changes to your coverage or your eligible dependent's coverage during the year, subject to certain restrictions. This section outlines the changes, when they become effective and any restrictions that may apply.

Coverage	Action	Change
Supplementary or Dependent Life	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Increase/decrease coverage, or • Elect/cancel coverage 	At any time, subject to proof of insurability for coverage increases.
Supplementary or Dependent AD&D	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Increase/decrease coverage, or • Elect/cancel coverage 	Only within 31 days of a qualified status change or during annual enrollment .

Employee Coverage Changes

Increasing Your Supplementary Life Insurance

You may increase the amount of your supplementary life insurance at any time during the year if you submit a satisfactory Statement of Health (see "Proof of Insurability") to the Insurer (see "Important Contacts").

To increase your coverage, call the Avaya Health and Benefits Decision Center (see "Important Contacts") or logon to www.avayahealthydecisions.com and make your new election. You must obtain a statement of Health (see "Proof of Insurability"), through the website under "Reference Materials & Forms" which should be completed and returned to the address on the form. Your new coverage takes effect on the date the Insurer (see "Important Contacts") approves your proof of insurability, provided you are actively at work on that day (see "You Must Be Actively at Work").

Decreasing Your Supplementary Life Insurance

You may decrease the amount of your supplementary life insurance at any time during the year.

To make a change, call the Avaya Health and Benefits Decision Center (see "Important Contacts") or logon to www.avayahealthydecisions.com. The new coverage takes effect on the first day of the month after you request the change.

Changing Your Supplementary AD&D Insurance

Changes are only permitted during the year only within 31 days of a qualified status change (see “Coverage Changes if You Have a Qualified Status Change”) or during annual enrollment. Call the Avaya Health and Benefits Decision Center (see “Important Contacts”) or logon to www.avayahealthydecisions.com to change your coverage.

Dependent Coverage Changes

Increasing Dependent Life Insurance

You may increase coverage for your children at any time by calling the Avaya Health and Benefits Decision Center (see “Important Contacts”) or logon to www.avayahealthydecisions.com. The increase takes effect on the date of your election, provided you are actively at work on that day.

You may increase coverage for your lawful spouse or domestic partner by calling the Avaya Health and Benefits Decision Center. They will send you a Statement of Health (see “Proof of Insurability”) or you can obtain the form online at www.AvayaHealthyDecisions.com. The Statement of Health must be completed and returned to the address on the form. Your lawful spouse’s or domestic partner’s new coverage takes effect on the date the Insurer (see “Important Contacts”) approves his or her proof of insurability, provided you are actively at work on that day. For more information, see “You Must Be Actively at Work.”

Decreasing or Canceling Dependent Life Insurance

You may decrease or cancel your dependent life insurance at any time during the year.

To make a change, call the Avaya Health and Benefits Decision Center (see “Important Contacts”) or logon to www.avayahealthydecisions.com. The new coverage takes effect on the first day of the month after your requested decrease or cancellation.

Changing Dependent AD&D Insurance

Changes are permitted only during the year only within 31 days of a qualified status change (see “Coverage Changes if You Have a Qualified Status Change”) or during annual enrollment. Call the Avaya Health and Benefits Decision Center (see “Important Contacts”) to change your coverage.

Coverage Changes if You Have a Qualified Status Change

During the year, you may increase or decrease the amount of your supplementary AD&D insurance or your dependent AD&D insurance only if you have a qualified status change or during annual enrollment. The coverage change must be consistent with the status change. You must call the Avaya Health and Benefits Decision Center (see "Important Contacts") to request any changes within 31 days of the event. The new coverage amount takes effect on the date you make your election or the first of the month following the date of your election, depending on the event, provided you are actively at work.

PAYMENT OF BENEFITS

Under Your Basic and Supplementary Life and AD&D Insurance

Generally, if proceeds are received under a life insurance contract because of the death of the insured person, the benefits are not taxable income and do not have to be reported. Any interest received would be taxable and would need to be reported just like any other interest received. Please refer to your personal tax advisor for additional information.

Payment of Your Life Insurance Benefit

Your basic and supplementary life insurance benefit is paid to your beneficiary(ies) if you die while your coverage is in effect. If you are diagnosed as being terminally ill, you may be eligible to receive a portion of your basic and supplementary life insurance benefit while you are still living (see “Accelerated Benefit Option”).

If you are a participant in the Cash Accumulation Fund under the Supplementary Life Insurance Plan, any balance in this account will be added to your life insurance amount and paid, income tax-free, to your beneficiary(ies).

If you assigned your basic and supplementary life insurance coverage, see “Benefits Can Be Assigned.”

For information about how to file a claim, see “Claims.”

Accelerated Benefit Option

The accelerated benefit option allows you to receive a portion of your basic and supplementary life insurance benefit if you are diagnosed as being terminally ill with a life expectancy of six or fewer months. The minimum amount you may request is $10,000. The maximum amount is the lesser of $250,000 or 50% of your basic and supplementary life insurance benefit. You may use this money in any way you wish.

Here are some guidelines that may affect your eligibility or decision to apply for this benefit:

- You are not eligible for the accelerated benefit option if you previously assigned your life insurance coverage (see “Benefits Can Be Assigned”), or if your life insurance benefit is to be paid to a former spouse as part of a divorce agreement.
- If your basic life insurance coverage is scheduled to be reduced within six months of the date the accelerated benefit option is approved, the payment will be limited to 50% of the reduced amount of the basic life insurance coverage.

- If your basic or supplementary life insurance coverage is scheduled to fully terminate within six months of the date the accelerated benefit option has been approved, the accelerated benefit option will not apply to the coverage that is terminating.
- Any basic life insurance benefit eligible for conversion will be reduced by any accelerated benefit option amount paid under this provision.
- You may want to ask your professional tax advisor about the taxability of accelerated benefit option benefits before applying for this benefit.
- Accelerated benefit option benefits may affect your eligibility for benefits under state and federal law.
- The life insurance benefit payable to your beneficiary(ies) upon your death will be reduced by any amount paid to you under the accelerated benefit option.

Call the Insurer (see “Important Contacts”) to request an accelerated benefit option form.

Payment of Your Basic and Supplementary AD&D Insurance Benefits

Your AD&D insurance pays benefits if you die or suffer a covered loss (see “Covered Losses Under Basic, Supplementary and Dependent AD&D Insurance” and “What’s Not Covered”) within 90 days of a qualifying accident on or off the job.

The following chart shows you how benefits are paid for covered losses.

HOW YOUR AD&D INSURANCE BENEFITS ARE PAID
Loss of *	Benefit Paid *	Payment Is Made to
Your life	100% of your coverage amount	Your beneficiary(ies)
A hand, a foot or sight in one eye	50% of your coverage amount	You
Your speech or hearing	50% of your coverage amount	You
Two or more of the above accidental losses	100% of your coverage amount	You
The thumb and index finger on the same hand	25% of your coverage amount	You
*The maximum payment for all losses resulting from one accident is 100% of your coverage amount.

Refer to “Terms You Should Know” for definitions of the above losses.

If you assigned your AD&D insurance, see “Benefits Can Be Assigned.”

For information about how to file a claim, see “Claims.”

Under Dependent Life and Dependent AD&D Insurance

Generally, if proceeds are received under a life insurance contract because of the death of the insured person, the benefits are not taxable income and do not have to be reported. Any interest received would be taxable and would need to be reported just like any other interest received. Please refer to your personal tax advisor for additional information.

Payment of Dependent Life Insurance Benefits

Dependent life insurance benefits are paid to you if one of your covered eligible dependents dies while dependent life insurance is in effect.

For information about how to file a claim, see “Claims.”

Payment of Dependent AD&D Insurance Benefits

Dependent AD&D insurance will pay a benefit to you if one of your covered eligible dependents dies or suffers a covered loss (see “Covered Losses Under Basic, Supplementary and Dependent AD&D Insurance” and “What’s Not Covered”) within 90 days of a qualifying accident.

The following chart shows you how benefits are paid for covered losses.

HOW DEPENDENT AD&D INSURANCE BENEFITS ARE PAID
Loss of *	You Will Receive*
His or her life	100% of his or her coverage amount
A hand, a foot or sight in one eye	50% of his or her coverage amount
His or her speech or hearing	50% of his or her coverage amount
Two or more of the above accidental losses	100% of his or her coverage amount
The thumb and index finger on the same hand	25% of his or her coverage amount

*The maximum payment for all losses resulting from one accident is 100% of your dependent's coverage amount.

Refer to “Terms You Should Know” for definitions of the above losses.

For information about how to file a claim, see “Claims.”

Covered Losses Under Basic, Supplementary and Dependent AD&D Insurance

For benefits to be paid, the death or covered loss:

- Must be caused solely as the result of a qualifying accident that occurs while the individual’s coverage is in effect, and
- Must occur within 90 days of the accident.

Not all accidental deaths or losses are covered. For information about accidental deaths or losses for which no benefits will be paid, see “What’s Not Covered.”

What’s Not Covered

Basic, supplementary and dependent AD&D insurance do not pay benefits for accidental death or losses caused by:

- Committing or trying to commit a felony or other serious crime or an assault
- Physical or mental illness
- Treatment of an illness or surgical procedure
- An infection (unless it is caused by an external visible wound as a result of an accident)
- Disease, ptomaine or bacterial infections
- Suicide or attempted suicide
- Driving a vehicle while intoxicated as defined by the laws of the jurisdiction in which the vehicle was being operated
- Injuring oneself on purpose
- War or warlike actions in times of peace

The Insurer (see “Important Contacts”) determines whether benefits will be paid.

How Benefits Are Paid

The Insurer (see “Important Contacts”) will process the claim and will make payment when the claim is approved. The amount of the benefit determines how payment is made. A check is issued for payments under $5,000. If the payment is $5,000 or more, the proceeds are paid into a money market account established in your or your beneficiary’s name.

YOUR COSTS

The Avaya Participating Company pays the full cost to provide you with basic life and basic AD&D insurance of one times your total annual pay. If the value of your Company-paid basic coverage for life insurance is more than $50,000 the amount above $50,000 is considered imputed income. See “Imputed Income” for important tax information.

If you elect supplementary life, supplementary AD&D, dependent life or dependent AD&D insurance coverage, you pay the full cost for that coverage through payroll deductions. The type of insurance you elect determines whether you pay the required premiums on a pre-tax or after-tax basis.

- Premiums for supplementary life and dependent life insurance are deducted from your pay on an after-tax basis.
- Premiums for supplementary AD&D and dependent AD&D insurance are deducted from your pay on a pre-tax basis.

Your Premium Costs

Your cost for supplementary life, supplementary AD&D, dependent life or dependent AD&D insurance appears on your pay statement.

The cost to you for your supplementary life insurance is determined by your age as of December 31st of the current plan year, whether or not you are a tobacco user (see “How Premium Costs Are Determined”) and your total annual pay.

The cost to you for dependent life insurance for your lawful spouse or domestic partner is determined by their age as of December 31st of the current plan year. Your cost for dependent life insurance for your child(ren) is based solely on the amount of insurance you elect.

How Premium Costs Are Determined

The cost for supplementary life insurance coverage is based on the option your elect and your total annual pay.

The cost for supplementary AD&D insurance is determined as follows:

- If you are newly eligible, your cost for supplementary AD&D insurance coverage is based on the option you elect and your total annual pay on the day you become eligible (see “Who Is Eligible”).
- If you enroll during annual enrollment, your cost is based on the option you elect and your total annual pay.
- If you make a change during the year, your cost is based on the option you elect and your total annual pay.

Your cost for dependent life insurance for your lawful spouse or domestic partner is based on their age as of December 31st of the year for which you are enrolling. Your cost for dependent life insurance for your child(ren) is based solely on the amount of insurance you elect.

Your cost for dependent AD&D insurance is based solely on the amount of insurance you elect for your eligible dependents. It is not related to age or your total annual pay.

How a Pay Change Affects Cost

If you elect supplementary life and AD&D insurance (see “Amount of Coverage Available”), the cost for that coverage is based on the option you elect, your total annual pay and your age (for supplementary life insurance). Your cost will remain the same for the rest of that year even if your annual rate of pay changes during the year.

How a Change in Tobacco Status Affects Cost

If you elect supplementary life insurance (see “Amount of Coverage Available”) and your tobacco status changes, call the Avaya Health and Benefits Decision Center (see “Important Contacts”). Tobacco use constitutes any use of tobacco at any time during the prior 12-month period. A cost adjustment will become effective as early as the first of the month following the change of tobacco status.

WHEN COVERAGE ENDS

When Employee Coverage Ends

Basic Life Insurance

Your basic life insurance coverage ends on the last day of the month in which any of the following events occur:

- Your employment is terminated with an Avaya Participating Company for any reason other than retirement on a service or disability pension (see “If You Retire”).
- The continuation period following disability benefits expires (see “If You Become Disabled”).
- The continuation period following layoff expires (see “If You Are Laid Off”).
- The company you work for ceases to be an Avaya Participating Company.
- The Plan or benefit is terminated.

When your coverage ends, you may be able to convert the coverage to an individual policy. For more information see “Converting Coverage to an Individual Policy.”

Supplementary Life Insurance

Your supplementary life insurance coverage can continue after you leave the Avaya Participating Company for any reason (see “Employment-Related Events Affecting Coverage” and “If You Retire”). You may:

- Continue coverage up to the Plan maximums by continuing to pay the contributions to the Insurer (see “Important Contacts”),
- Purchase a paid-up life insurance policy which would provide death benefit coverage for the remainder of your lifetime with no further premium payments, or
- Receive the cash value, if you have a balance in your Cash Accumulation Fund.

Coverage will end if you elect to cancel the insurance or turn age 95. Contact the Insurer (see “Important Contacts”) for the cancellation form. Coverage will continue through the end of the month in which you make your election to discontinue coverage. Any balance in your Cash Accumulation Fund, after satisfaction of any unpaid premiums or loan balances, will be returned to you.

Supplementary life insurance is generally not converted to an individual policy since it may be continued.

Basic and Supplementary AD&D Insurance

Your basic and supplementary AD&D insurance ends on the last day of the month in which any of the following events occur:

- Your employment is terminated with an Avaya Participating Company for any reason.
- You fail to make any required contributions.
- Disability benefits end for any reason other than your return to work (see “If You Become Disabled”).
- The continuation period following layoff expires (see “If You Are Laid Off”).
- The company you work for ceases to be an Avaya Participating Company.
- The Plan or benefit is terminated.

Basic and supplementary AD&D insurance cannot be converted to an individual policy.

When Dependent Coverage Ends

Dependent life and dependent AD&D insurance end on the last day of the month in which any of the following events occur:

- Your employment is terminated with an Avaya Participating Company for any reason.
- You fail to make the required contributions.
- Disability benefits end for any reason other than your return to work (see “If You Become Disabled”).
- The continuation period following layoff expires (see “If You Are Laid Off”).
- The company you work for ceases to be an Avaya Participating Company.
- Your covered dependent is no longer eligible.
- The Plan or benefit is terminated.

Refer to “If a Dependent Loses Eligibility” for more information.

Conversion to an individual policy may be available for dependent life insurance (see “Converting Coverage to an Individual Policy”) when coverage ends. Dependent AD&D insurance cannot be converted.

Other Reasons Your Coverage Will End

In addition, when any of the following happens, you will receive written notice that your coverage (and coverage for your covered dependents) has ended on the date identified in the notice:

- Fraud or misrepresentation with respect to this Plan, or because you (or one of your covered dependents) knowingly gave the Plan Administrator, Insurer (see “Important Contact”) or Avaya Health and Benefits Decision Center false, material information. Examples include false information relating to a person’s eligibility or status as a covered dependent.
- You (or one of your covered dependents) in any other way materially violate the terms of the Life Insurance Plans.

Converting Coverage to an Individual Policy

You may be able to convert all or part of your basic and dependent life insurance to an individual policy when your coverage ends or is reduced (see “When Coverage Ends,” “If You Work Beyond Age 65” and “If You Retire”).

To convert your coverage, you must request the conversion within 90 days after the date coverage ends or is reduced. During the first 31 days of the conversion period, your coverage continues. However, such coverage does not continue during the remaining conversion period. No proof of insurability is required during this period. If you are interested in converting your insurance, call the Insurer (see “Important Contacts”).

The individual policy will be one customarily issued by the Insurer for conversions. It will not include disability or AD&D benefits.

Conversion is not available for basic, supplementary or dependent AD&D insurance. You also may not convert your supplementary life insurance because it may be continued by paying your premiums directly to the Insurer (see “Important Contacts”).

CLAIMS

Filing a Claim

To report a death, your beneficiary should call the Pension Service Center (see “Important Contacts”). To report another loss, you should call the Insurer (see “Important Contacts”).

The Insurer (see “Important Contacts”) will send all the necessary claim forms to complete. The Insurer can answer questions about benefits and can help complete the forms.

To file a claim:

- Call to report the death or loss.
- Follow the instructions on the claim form carefully and answer all questions completely.
- Attach the death certificate, if a claim is filed for death benefits.
- Submit the required paperwork to the address printed on the form.

In addition, the following applies for AD&D claims:

- While a claim for accidental dismemberment benefits is pending, the Insurer (see “Important Contacts”) has the right to appoint a physician to examine you or your covered dependent as often as it may reasonably require.
- For accidental death claims, the Insurer also has the right to have an autopsy made or receive a copy of an autopsy report, where it is not forbidden by law.

The Insurer (see “Important Contacts”) evaluates all claims to determine if any benefits will be paid. If the claim is approved, payment will be made (see “How Benefits Are Paid”). If any benefits are denied, a written explanation will be sent to the claimant. If there is a question about a claim payment, you or your beneficiary(ies) may request an explanation from the Insurer.

If a claim is denied, you or your beneficiary(ies) may appeal the decision. For more information, see “Claim Procedures.”

Filing Deadlines

Generally, claims should be submitted for death benefits as soon as possible after the death occurs.

If you are filing a claim form for accidental dismemberment, you must provide the Insurer (see “Important Contacts”) with:

- Written notice of the loss within 20 days after the accident causing the loss, and
- Proof of the loss within 90 days after the date of the loss.

If it is not reasonably possible to provide proof within these time frames, an extension may be granted if you (or your beneficiary) can prove you furnished the proof as soon as reasonably possible.

EMPLOYMENT-RELATED EVENTS AFFECTING COVERAGE

If You Change Your Job Classification

If your job classification is changed to salaried, your life insurance coverage levels will remain the same, except instead of participating in the Supplementary Life Insurance Plan for represented employees, you will participate in the Supplementary Life Insurance Plan for salaried employees. You will receive a benefits enrollment letter from the Avaya Health and Benefits Decision Center (see “Important Contacts”) with information about your salaried benefits. A Statement of Health may be required if you elect to increase your level of life insurance coverage.

If Your Employment is Terminated

Your basic life, basic AD&D, supplementary AD&D, dependent life and dependent AD&D insurance end on the last day of the month in which your employment ends. Different rules may apply if you retire with a service or disability pension (see “If You Retire”) or if you are laid off (see “If You Are Laid Off”). Your supplementary life insurance may be continued up to age 95 by paying the premium set by the Insurer (see “Important Contacts”) directly to the Insurer.

Conversion to an individual policy may be available for your basic life and dependent life insurance. For more information, see “Converting Coverage to an Individual Policy.” Basic, supplementary and dependent AD&D insurance cannot be converted.

If You Are Laid Off

If you are laid off, your basic life, basic AD&D, supplementary AD&D, dependent life and/or dependent AD&D insurance can continue for a limited period of time if you make any required contributions. Coverage may continue as follows:

- Your basic life and basic AD&D insurance may continue for up to six months at no cost to you.
- Your supplementary AD&D insurance may continue for up to six months.
- Dependent life and dependent AD&D insurance may continue for up to 90 days.

To continue coverage, contact the Insurer (see “Important Contacts”) for the appropriate form. When coverage ends, you may be able to convert your basic and dependent life insurance to an individual policy (see “Converting Coverage to an Individual Policy”). You cannot convert your basic, supplementary and/or dependent

AD&D insurance. Your supplementary life insurance may be continued up to age 95 by paying the premiums set by the Insurer directly to the Insurer.

If You Become Disabled

Your participation in the Life Insurance Plans may be affected if you become disabled. The duration of your disability determines what happens to your coverage.

If you become totally disabled, and you are receiving either accident or sickness disability benefits under The Avaya Inc. Sickness and Accident Disability Benefit Plan, your basic life, supplementary life, basic AD&D, supplementary AD&D, dependent life and dependent AD&D insurance will continue for as long as you make any required contributions.

Basic AD&D, supplementary AD&D, dependent life and dependent AD&D insurance will end when your accident or sickness disability benefits stop and you do not return to work. However, your basic life insurance will continue for a limited period of time if you receive benefits under The Avaya Inc. Long-Term Disability Plan. For more information, see “Long-Term Disability.”

You may be able to convert your dependent life insurance to an individual policy (see “Converting Coverage to an Individual Policy”) when coverage ends. Basic, supplementary and dependent AD&D insurance cannot be converted.

Your supplementary life insurance may be continued up to age 95 by paying the premium set by the Insurer (see “Important Contacts”) directly to the Insurer.

If you are eligible to retire on a disability or service pension, see “If You Retire.”

Long-Term Disability

While you are receiving benefits from The Avaya Inc. Long-Term Disability Plan, your basic life insurance will continue at no cost to you for a limited period of time based on your net credited service.

Here is how it works:

CONTINUATION OF BASIC DURING LONG-TERM DISABILITY
If Your Net Credited Service Is	Your Basic Life Insurance Continues for
Fewer than five years	One year
Five years through nine years	Two years
10 years through 14 years	Three years

When your basic life insurance ends, you may be able to convert your coverage to an individual policy (see “Converting Coverage to an Individual Policy”).

Your supplementary life insurance may be continued up to age 95 by paying the premium set by the Insurer (see “Important Contacts”) directly to the Insurer.

If you are eligible to retire on a disability or service pension, see “If You Retire.”

If You Are on an Approved Leave of Absence

If you are on an approved leave of absence (including a leave under the Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993 and/or state equivalents) that provides for continuation of your basic life, supplementary life, basic AD&D, supplementary AD&D, dependent life and dependent AD&D insurance, you may continue coverage during your leave based on the provisions governing your leave if you make the required contributions.

During your leave of absence, the Avaya Participating Company will continue to pay for both your basic life and basic AD&D insurance. You may continue supplementary life, supplementary AD&D, dependent life and dependent AD&D only if you are presently enrolled for these coverages.

If you are currently enrolled in supplementary life insurance, you will receive a letter from the Insurer (see “Important Contacts”) notifying you of your continuation options for this coverage. For your remaining insurance coverages, if you want to continue coverage, please contact the Insurer for the appropriate form and to initiate direct billing for dependent life, supplementary AD&D and dependent AD&D insurance. You will then be billed directly on a monthly basis for the duration of your leave.

If you are remitting supplementary life insurance premiums directly to the Insurer (see “Important Contacts”) while on an approved leave of absence, and you do not remit premiums within 60 days, any funds in your Cash Accumulation Fund will be used to pay for the cost of insurance. When the funds in your Cash Accumulation Fund are not sufficient to cover the cost of insurance, the certificate lapses. Upon return to work, you must re-enroll for the coverage in accordance with the Insurer's guidelines. If you do not continue coverage during your leave of absence, you will need to complete a Statement of Health if you wish to re-enroll upon returning to work.

If you do not continue your coverage during your leave of absence, the coverage level in effect immediately before your leave will not be reinstated automatically upon your return to active employment. You must re-enroll for coverage and submit a Statement of Health where applicable. If you continue your coverage during your leave of absence, the coverage level in effect will be reinstated upon your return to active employment.

Avaya Participating Companies comply with all State and Federal laws.

PERSONAL EVENTS AFFECTING COVERAGE

If You Gain a New Dependent

If you gain a new dependent (for example, through marriage, birth or adoption), you may enroll your new dependents for coverage. For more information, see “Coverage Changes.”

If a Dependent Loses Eligibility

If Your Lawful Spouse or Domestic Partner Is No Longer Eligible

Your enrolled lawful spouse or domestic partner is covered as long as he or she continues to meet the eligibility requirements. If the eligibility requirements are not met, your lawful spouse or domestic partner is not covered. You must notify the Avaya Health and Benefits Decision Center (see “Important Contacts”) to discontinue premiums. No benefits are payable after the end of the month in which your lawful spouse is no longer eligible, so it is important to call the Avaya Health and Benefits Decision Center in advance or as soon as possible following a loss of eligibility to avoid unnecessary premium payments.

Conversion to an individual policy is available for dependent life insurance (see “Converting Coverage to an Individual Policy”) when coverage ends. Dependent AD&D insurance cannot be converted.

If Your Dependent Child Is No Longer Eligible

Your dependent children are covered as long as they continue to meet the eligibility requirements.

If one child loses eligibility, but other covered children are still eligible, no notification is necessary for the discontinuance of coverage on that child. If you have no other eligible covered children, call the Avaya Health and Benefits Decision Center (see “Important Contacts”) to discontinue coverage. No benefits are payable after the end of the month in which your dependent child is no longer eligible, so it is important to call the Avaya Health and Benefits Decision Center in advance or as soon as possible following a loss of eligibility to avoid unnecessary premium payments.

Conversion to an individual policy is available for dependent life insurance when coverage ends (see “Converting Coverage to an Individual Policy”). Dependent AD&D insurance cannot be converted.

If Your Physically or Mentally Handicapped Child Reaches Age 23

If your physically or mentally handicapped child is incapable of self-support after age 23, you may continue coverage if the child is fully dependent on you for support. You must apply for this dependent certification from your health care company (see the number printed on your medical ID card). Continued coverage is not automatic.

If You Work Beyond Age 65

If you continue to work for the Avaya Participating Company after you reach age 65, the amount of your basic life and basic AD&D insurance will be reduced as follows:

- Adjusted rate of pay changes after age 65 will be recognized in determining the amount of your insurance.
- Coverage on your basic life and basic AD&D insurance will be reduced 10% on the first of the month after you reach age 66.
- Coverage will be reduced an additional 10% on each of the next four anniversaries of that date, until you reach age 70.
- No further reductions will occur after age 70, based on the terms of the Life Insurance Plans and insurance contracts.

Reductions only apply to basic life and basic AD&D insurance. Supplementary life and supplementary AD&D insurance coverages are not subject to these age reductions.

The table below shows how the reduction would work on your basic life and basic AD&D insurance if you continue to work and your total annual pay at age 65 is $31,000.

First of the Month After You Reach	Your Total Annual Pay*	Reduction	Basic Life and Basic AD&D Coverage
65	$31,000	0%	$31,000
66	$32,000	10%	$28,800
67	$33,000	20%	$26,400
68	$34,000	30%	$23,800
69	$35,000	40%	$21,000
70	$37,000	50%	$18,500

*Includes rounding to the next higher $1,000.

When your basic life insurance coverage is reduced by at least 20%, you may convert the amount that is being reduced, in increments of 20%, to an individual policy. For example, using the table above, you could make conversions at age 67 and again at age 69. In addition, you may convert the 10% reduction at age 70 to an individual policy. For conversion information, see “Converting Coverage to an Individual Policy.”

Reductions applied to basic life insurance while you are active continue after you retire (see “Reductions to Basic Life Insurance After Retirement”).

If You Are Terminally Ill

If you are diagnosed as being terminally ill with a life expectancy of six months or less, you may be eligible to receive a portion of your basic life and supplementary life insurance benefit while you are still living. For more information, see “Accelerated Benefit Option.”

If You Die

If you die, your beneficiary(ies) is(are) entitled to receive any death benefits that may be payable. Generally, since the proceeds are received under a life insurance contract because of the death of the insured person, the benefits are not taxable income and do not have to be reported. Any interest received would be taxable and would need to be reported just like any other interest received. For more information, see “Filing a Claim.” If you are enrolled in the Supplementary Life Insurance Plan, any balance in your Cash Accumulation Fund will be added to your life insurance and paid tax-free to your beneficiary(ies). Different rules apply if you assigned your basic life, supplementary life, basic AD&D and supplementary AD&D insurance (see “Benefits Can Be Assigned”).

In addition, any dependent life and dependent AD&D insurance in effect at that time ends on the last day of the month in which you die.

Conversion to an individual policy may be available for dependent life insurance (see “Converting Coverage to an Individual Policy”) when coverage ends. Dependent AD&D insurance cannot be converted.

If You Retire

If you retire on a service or disability pension, your basic life insurance continues, but is subject to reduction from age 66 through age 70 (see “Reductions to Basic Life Insurance After Retirement”).

You may continue your supplementary life insurance during retirement. Premiums will be billed directly by the Insurer (see “Important Contacts”).

Basic AD&D, supplementary AD&D, dependent life and dependent AD&D insurance end on the last day of the month in which you retire.

Conversion may be available when your basic life insurance reduces or when your dependent life insurance ends. You cannot convert your basic, supplementary and/or dependent AD&D insurance.

Additional information about your life insurance coverage after you retire may be found in The Avaya Inc. Life Insurance Plan for retired employees SPD. You may view or print a copy of the SPD online at www.avaya.com/benefitanswers or request a copy from the Avaya Health and Benefits Decision Center (see “Important Contacts”).

Reductions to Basic Life Insurance After Retirement

Reductions to your basic life insurance amount begin at age 66 whether you are active or retired. Reductions applied to basic life insurance while you are active continue after you retire (see “If You Work Beyond Age 65”). Effective the first of the month after your 66th birthday, your basic life insurance will be reduced by 10%. On each of the next four anniversaries of that reduction, your insurance will be further reduced each time by the same dollar amount. On the first of the month after your 70th birthday, your coverage will be 50% of the basic life insurance coverage you had at retirement. There are no further scheduled reductions after age 70.

When your basic life insurance is reduced by at least 20%, you may convert the amount of the reduction to an individual policy in the second and fourth years (at ages 67 and 69) and the final 10% in the fifth year at age 70. For more information, see “Converting Coverage to an Individual Policy.”

PROOF OF INSURABILITY

When You Must Provide Proof of Your Insurability

Proof of your insurability, through a Statement of Health form, is required for supplementary life insurance if:

- You enroll more than 31 days after your eligibility date, or
- You increase your supplementary life insurance after you initially enroll.

For more information, see “How to Provide Proof of Insurability.”

Proof of insurability is never required for supplementary AD&D insurance.

When Proof of Insurability Is Required for Dependent Life Insurance

Proof of your lawful spouse’s or domestic partner’s insurability is required if:

- You were previously eligible for dependent life insurance and are requesting coverage for the first time or requesting increased coverage on your lawful spouse or domestic partner,
- You elect or increase dependent life insurance coverage on your lawful spouse or domestic partner more than 31 days after your eligibility date or the date you marry, or
- You elect the $50,000 spousal coverage option at any time.

For more information, see “How to Provide Proof of Insurability.”

Proof of insurability is never required for your eligible dependent children or for dependent AD&D insurance on your lawful spouse, domestic partner or children.

How to Provide Proof of Insurability

To provide medical evidence of insurability satisfactory to the Insurer (see “Important Contacts”) for yourself or your lawful spouse or domestic partner, call the Avaya Health and Benefits Decision Center (see “Important Contacts”). Alternatively, you may obtain this form by logging on to the Avaya Healthy Decisions Web site at www.AvayaHealthyDecisions.com. Click “Reference Materials & Forms” on the left navigation bar. The Statement of Health form (see “Proof of Insurability”) should be completed and returned to the address on the form. After the form is received, you or your lawful spouse or domestic partner may be asked to provide additional information or to have a physical examination.

The enrollment or increase in coverage takes effect on the date the Insurer approves the evidence as satisfactory, provided you are actively at work on that day (see “You Must Be Actively at Work”).

IMPUTED INCOME

The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) requires that the Avaya Participating Company report to you the value of any Company-paid basic life insurance coverage over $50,000 on your W-2. This value is called "imputed income." Imputed income is subject to tax withholding.

When Imputed Income Applies

Imputed income only applies when your Company-paid basic life insurance coverage is over $50,000. There is no imputed income on supplementary life, basic AD&D, supplementary AD&D, dependent life or dependent AD&D insurance.

Taxes and Imputed Income

You may pay federal income tax on the value of a portion of your basic life insurance coverage over $50,000.

You are not taxed on the actual amount of your basic life insurance coverage over $50,000. Instead, the Avaya Participating Company reports as income an amount the IRS considers an appropriate premium for the portion of your Company-paid basic life insurance coverage over $50,000. The IRS publishes these rates in tables based on your age.

An Example: How Imputed Income Is Taxed

Suppose you are age 35 and your total annual pay is $55,000. You will pay federal income taxes on the imputed income on $5,000 (the amount of coverage over $50,000). Assume the current IRS premium rate for someone age 35 is $0.09 per month for each $1,000 of coverage. The imputed income for $5,000 of coverage would be $0.45 per month (5 x $0.09).

BENEFITS CAN BE ASSIGNED

You may assign your basic life, basic AD&D, supplementary life and supplementary AD&D insurance as an irrevocable gift to someone else if the Insurer (see “Important Contacts”) consents. Basic life, basic AD&D and supplementary AD&D cannot be separately assigned. This means you cannot assign one coverage without the other, and all coverages must be assigned to the same person (except supplementary life insurance). You may name that person as the owner of your insurance, even though it is your life that is insured. You may assign your supplementary life insurance to a different person.

If you make an assignment, you give up all present and future rights to the insurance. You cannot revoke the assignment at a later date. The person to whom you assign your insurance has the right to name beneficiaries, to change the level of coverage or to exercise any other privileges under the insurance that would otherwise have been available to you.

Because of the various legal and tax implications involved, you may wish to consult with a lawyer and a tax advisor before making an assignment. If you wish to make an assignment, contact the Insurer (see “Important Contacts”).

CLAIMS AND APPEALS PROCEDURES

This section contains administrative information about the Life Insurance Plans and other details required under the terms of a federal law, the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended (ERISA).

Claim Procedures

Participants, their beneficiaries or dependents (if applicable) or any individual duly authorized by them have the right under ERISA and the Life Insurance Plans to file a written claim for benefits with the Insurer (see “Important Contacts”).

Claim Processing

When the benefit is provided or denied, you will receive a notice explaining how the coverage level was calculated or why benefits have been denied. This notice will be provided within 90 days after the Insurer (see “Important Contacts”) receives the claim.

If the Insurer needs more than 90 days to make a decision, a representative will notify you in writing within the initial 90-day period and explain why more time is required. An additional 90 days (for a total of 180 days) may be taken if the Insurer sends this notice. The extension notice will include the date by which the Insurer’s decision will be sent.

Claims Decision Notices

The notice given to you concerning the decision on either your initial claim or your appeal will include:

- The specific reason or reasons for the decision;
- The specific Life Insurance Plan provisions upon which the benefit decision is based;
- A statement that you are entitled to receive upon request (and free of charge) reasonable access to, and copies of, all document, records and other information relevant to your claim;
- A description of any additional material or information that is necessary for you to complete your claim and an explanation of why such material or information is necessary;
- If an internal rule, guideline, protocol or similar criterion was relied on in making the decision, either a copy of that document or a statement that such a document was relied upon and that a copy will be furnished (free of charge) upon request;

- For an initial claim, a description of the appeal procedures; and
- A statement that the claimant has the right to bring a civil action under ERISA Section 502(a) following a denial upon appeal.

Appeal Procedures

If a claim for benefits is denied in whole or in part, or if you, your beneficiary or your dependents believe that benefits under the Life Insurance Plans to which you are entitled have not been provided, an appeal process is available to you. You, your dependents or your authorized representative must submit a written request for review within 60 days after you receive the denial notice. In connection with your appeal, you (or your authorized representative) may review relevant documents and submit issues and comments in writing.

The relevant documents that must be made available to you upon request include documents, records and other information that:

- Were relied on in deciding your benefit claim;
- Were submitted, considered or generated in the course of deciding your benefit claim;
- Demonstrate that the decision complied with the Life Insurance Plan's administrative procedures or safeguards; or
- State the Life Insurance Plan's policy or guidelines regarding the benefits, whether or not it was relied upon.

If you want to appeal a decision on eligibility for benefits, send your appeal to the Plan Administrator (see "Important Contacts"). All other appeals should be sent to the Insurer (see "Important Contacts").

Your appeal will be reviewed. Someone other than the person who made the first decision on your claim must make this review.

After a decision by the Insurer or the Plan Administrator, as the case may be, is made concerning your appeal, you will be notified of the findings and decision in writing. This notice will be provided no later than 60 days after receiving the claim.

If special circumstances cause the Insurer to need more than 60 days to make a decision, a representative will notify you in writing within the initial 60-day period and explain why more time is required. An additional 60 days (for a total of 120 days) may be taken if the Insurer sends this notice but a longer period of time may be granted if necessary.

If you submit your request for a written review according to the procedures described in this section and you do not hear from the Insurer within the time limits given here, contact the insurer for additional assistance.

This decision is final and is not subject to further internal review.

YOUR RIGHTS UNDER ERISA

It is the policy of the Avaya Participating Company to provide meaningful benefits -- above and beyond your paycheck. Part of this additional protection is provided through the Life Insurance Plans. You are entitled to certain rights and protection under ERISA. These rights are described in this section.

Right to Receive Information About the Plan and Its Benefits

It is your right to know about your benefits. Therefore, in addition to this SPD describing your benefits under the Life Insurance Plans, you will have the opportunity to obtain a summary of the Life Insurance Plans' annual financial reports. You also may examine all Life Insurance Plan documents governing the Life Insurance Plan and a copy of the latest annual report (Form 5500 Series) filed with the U.S. Department of Labor. These documents are available for you to examine without charge in the Plan Administrator's office.

You can receive a copy of any of these documents, for a reasonable charge, by making a written request to the Plan Administrator.

Prudent Action by Plan Fiduciaries

You also have the right to expect the fiduciaries -- the people responsible for the operation of the Life Insurance Plans -- to act prudently and in the best interest of those who participate as a whole. The Life Insurance Plan's fiduciaries must act in the best interest of all Life Insurance Plan participants.

The Avaya Participating Company may not dismiss you or discriminate against you to prevent you from obtaining benefits or exercising any of your rights under ERISA.

Enforce Your Rights

If your claim for a benefit is denied or ignored, in whole or in part, you have a right to know why this was done, to obtain copies of documents relating to the decision without charge, and to appeal any denial, all within certain time schedules. Under ERISA, there are steps you can take to enforce your ERISA rights. For instance:

- If you request a copy of plan documents or the latest annual report (Form 5500 Series) from the Plan Administrator and do not receive them within 30 days, you may file suit in federal court. In such a case, the court may require the Plan Administrator to provide the materials and pay you up to $110 a day until you receive the materials -- unless the materials were not sent for reasons beyond the control of the Plan Administrator.

- If you have a claim for benefits that is denied or ignored – in whole or in part – after going through the appeals procedures, you may file suit in a state or federal court.
- If you are discriminated against for asserting your ERISA rights, you may seek assistance from the U.S. Department of Labor, or you may file suit in federal court.

If you file suit against the Life Insurance Plan, the court will decide who should pay court costs and legal fees. If you are successful, the court may order the person you sued to pay these costs and fees. If you lose, the court may order you to pay these costs and fees – if, for example, it finds your claim is frivolous.

If You Have Questions

For answers to questions about the Life Insurance Plans, contact the Insurer (see “Important Contacts”). If you have any questions about this statement, or about your rights under ERISA, contact the nearest Regional or District Office of the U.S. Department of Labor’s Employee Benefits Security Administration (EBSA), listed in your telephone directory; or contact the Division of Technical Assistance and Inquiries, U.S. Department of Labor, EBSA, 200 Constitution Avenue N.W., Washington, D.C. 20210. You may also obtain certain publications about your rights and responsibilities under ERISA by calling the EBSA or visit the EBSA Web site at www.dol.gov/ebsa. (Addresses and phone numbers of Regional and District EBSA Offices are available through the EBSA Web site.)

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Plan Funding and Payment of Benefits

The Avaya Participating Company pays the costs associated with providing you with basic life and basic AD&D insurance. You pay the full cost for any supplementary life insurance, supplementary AD&D insurance, dependent life insurance, and/or dependent AD&D insurance you elect. Any costs you pay for coverage go toward the total premium paid by the Avaya Participating Company to the Insurer (see “Important Contacts”).

Plan Documents Govern

This Summary Plan Description was designed to describe the key features of the Avaya Inc. Life Insurance Plans in easy-to-understand terms. It is less technical than the Life Insurance Plan Documents. However, it is the Plan Documents and contracts that determine your rights and the rights of your eligible dependents and/or beneficiaries under the Life Insurance Plans. In all instances, the Life Insurance Plan Documents and contracts will govern.

Union Agreement

The benefits described in this SPD reflect the provisions of the Life Insurance Plans as referred to in applicable collective bargaining agreements between Avaya Inc. and the unions representing employees of the Avaya Participating Company. Copies of these agreements are distributed or made available to those employees covered by the agreements and to any other employee who submits a written request for a copy to the Plan Administrator. A reasonable duplication charge may be made for copies furnished in response to such written request.

Plans May Be Amended or Terminated

The Avaya Participating Company expects to continue the Life Insurance Plans, but reserves the right to amend or terminate the Life Insurance Plans at any time by the resolution of the Board of Directors or a properly authorized designee, subject to the terms of applicable collective bargaining agreements. In addition, the Avaya Participating Company does not guarantee the continuation of any life insurance benefits during employment nor does it guarantee any specific level of benefits or contributions.

Plan Administrator

The Plan Administrator has the full discretionary authority and power to control and manage all aspects of the Life Insurance Plans, to determine eligibility for Life Insurance Plan benefits, to interpret and construe the terms and provisions of the Life Insurance Plans, to determine questions of fact and law, to direct disbursements and to adopt rules for the administration of the Life Insurance Plans as they may deem appropriate in accordance with the terms of the Life Insurance Plans and all applicable laws, subject to the terms of applicable collective bargaining agreements.

Plan Sponsor

The Plan Sponsor may allocate or delegate its responsibilities for the administration of the Life Insurance Plans to others and employ others to carry out or render advice with respect to its responsibilities under the Life Insurance Plans, including discretionary authority to interpret and construe the terms of the Life Insurance Plans, to direct payment of benefits and to determine eligibility for Life Insurance Plan benefits.
