TERMS YOU SHOULD KNOW

There are several words and phrases that have a specific meaning under the Business Travel Accident Plan. This section explains those terms so you can better understand your benefits. These terms are printed in boldface when they appear to let you know they are defined here.

Annual rate of pay: your pay for the last 12 months, determined as follows:

Determining Your Annual Rate of Pay
If you are paid...	Then your annual rate of pay is...
Weekly	52 times your normal weekly adjusted rate of pay (hourly rate times 40).
Monthly	12 times your normal monthly base pay.

Assigned work location: your normal place of work, or any facility, regardless of location, in which you are expected to report for work for more than 90 consecutive calendar days.

Business trip: a trip anywhere in the world away from your premise of regular assignment that is approved by the Company. Coverage begins at the actual start of the trip, whether it is from your home, place of work or other place, whichever occurs last, and ends when you arrive at your home or place of work, whichever happens first.

Children: include your biological children and/or legally adopted children (including those who are in the formal legal adoption process), stepchildren living with you, and children living with you for whom you or your lawful spouse or domestic partner is the legal guardian (excluding “wards of the state” and “foster children”). See Class I dependents and domestic partnership dependents.

Class I dependents: includes your lawful spouse and each unmarried child through December 31st of the year in which the child reaches age 23.

To be eligible, a child must be:

- Your biological child and/or your legally adopted child living with you, including any child in the formal legal process of adoption, regardless of residence,
- A stepchild living with you, or
- A child living with you for whom you or your lawful spouse is the legal guardian. This does not include “wards of the state” or “foster children”.

Class I dependents also include each unmarried child of any age who is determined to be eligible by the applicable medical Claims Administrator through meeting all of the following criteria:

- Incapable of self-support,
- Physically or mentally handicapped, and
- Fully dependent on you for support.

To be covered as Class I dependents, children beyond the age of 23 years must be certified for coverage by the applicable medical Claims Administrator under The Avaya Inc. Medical Expense Plan for Salaried Employees. You must complete an application form available from your applicable medical Claims Administrator and submit it for approval to the address listed on the form.

No coverage is available for a child over age of 23 who is incapacitated for a short time due to illness or accident (e.g., a broken leg).

Domestic Partner: an individual (same-gender or opposite-gender) is your domestic partner if you both complete and file with the Avaya Health and Benefits Decision Center a notarized Domestic Partner Affidavit in which you both attest that you met all of the following requirements:

- Reside in the same household,
- Are age 18 or older,
- Have mental sufficiency to enter into a valid contract,
- Are not related to each other by blood,
- Are not legally married to any other person,
- Have a close and committed personal relationship with each other; intend to continue such relationship indefinitely; and have no such relationship with anyone else, and
- Have joint responsibility for each other's welfare and financial obligations.

In addition to the aforementioned requirements, the following criteria must be satisfied if applicable:

- Have complied with any state or local registration process for domestic partners; are the same-gender, reside in a state that recognizes same-gender marriages and are legally married under the laws of that state; or reside in a state that recognizes same-sex civil unions and have legally entered into such a civil union.

Note: Only eligible employee employed in the U.S. can have a domestic partner.

Domestic partnership dependent: is an individual who is the natural or adopted child of a domestic partner, a child whom the domestic partner is in the formal, legal process of adopting, or a child living with you for whom the domestic partner is the legal guardian.

Eligible children: your eligible Class I dependents (other than your lawful spouse) and eligible domestic partnership dependents.

Eligible dependents: your eligible Class I dependents. For eligible employees in the U.S., eligible dependents include eligible domestic partner and eligible domestic partnership dependents.

A family member who is in the armed forces of any country is not considered a dependent under the Business Travel Accident Plan.

Eligible employee: a regular, active, full-time or part-time, salaried employee who works for Avaya Inc. or one of its participating subsidiaries.

Individuals who are employed by an independent company (such as an employment agency), or whose services are rendered pursuant to an agreement excluding participation in benefit plans are not eligible to participate in the Business Travel Accident Plan.

Lawful spouse: a person who is recognized as the lawful husband or lawful wife of an active employee under the laws of the state or jurisdiction of the eligible employee's domicile. An eligible employee residing in a state that recognizes common law marriage must satisfy the specific minimum state requirements to be married under common law.

Paralysis: loss of use, without severance of a limb. This loss must be determined by a doctor to be complete and not reversible.

Permanently and totally disabled: for purposes of the Business Travel Accident Plan, you are considered permanently and totally disabled if you are unable to do any work for which you may become qualified by reason of education, experience or training, and you are expected to be unable to do such work for life.

Personal deviations: include activities, which occur while you are traveling on Company business, that are not related to the Company's business and not incidental to the business trip.

Qualifying accident: an accident that occurs while you are covered under the Business Travel Accident Plan, in which you or your eligible dependents die or suffer a covered loss while traveling on approved Company-paid business, including personal deviations.

Severed/Severance: the complete separation and dismemberment of the limb from the body.

Total annual pay: used to determine the amount of life insurance available to you. Your total annual pay is your annual rate of pay plus your target short-term incentive or sales incentives, rounded to the next higher $1,000, frozen as of September 10th of the prior Plan Year. For new hires, the total annual pay is calculated based on your annual rate of pay and target short-term incentive or sales incentive, rounded to the next higher $1,000, as of the date you are hired with the Company. Total annual pay does not include differentials, overtime pay, extra payments or allowances that are considered temporary.

Totally disabled: for purposes of the Business Travel Accident Plan, you are considered totally disabled if you are unable to perform the substantial and material duties of your type of work.

PARTICIPATING IN THE PLAN

If you are an eligible employee (a regular, active, full-time or part-time, salaried employee who works for Avaya Inc. or one of its subsidiaries), you are eligible for Business Travel Accident Plan coverage.

Individuals who are employed by an independent company (such as an employment agency), or whose services are rendered pursuant to an agreement excluding participation in benefit plans are not eligible to participate in the Business Travel Accident Plan.

If you are an eligible employee, coverage is provided automatically by the Company to you at no cost beginning on your first day of active employment. You do not need to enroll.

Coverage for your eligible dependents is provided only when they are traveling on approved Company-paid business and relocation trips. If you file a claim, you may be required to provide proof that your dependents meet the eligibility requirements.

AMOUNT OF COVERAGE PROVIDED

Under the Business Travel Accident Plan, the Company provides you with an accidental death and dismemberment benefit of up to four times your total annual pay, to a maximum of $3,000,000, and a permanent total disability benefit of up to four times your total annual pay, to a maximum of $3,000,000. The Company also provides coverage of up to $100,000 for your lawful spouse or domestic partner and up to $50,000 for each eligible child. Coverage cannot be waived.

Effect on Coverage if You Work Beyond Age 70

If you continue to work after age 70, your accidental death and dismemberment benefits under the Business Travel Accident Plan will be reduced as follows:

Age at Date of Loss	Benefit Is Reduced By
70 – 74	17.5%
75 – 79	42.5%
80 – 84	62.5%
85 and over	80.0%

The permanent total disability benefit does not continue after age 70.

Coverage When Both You and Your Spouse Work for the Company

When both you and your lawful spouse or domestic partner work for Avaya Inc., you are both covered under the Business Travel Accident Plan. However, you cannot collect benefits as both an eligible employee and as an eligible dependent when traveling together. Benefits are paid based on which employee's department approved and paid for the travel arrangements for the trip in which the loss occurred. Benefits for your eligible children will only be paid once, to the employee whose department has approved and paid for the eligible child's travel arrangements.

WHEN BENEFITS ARE PAID

Business travel accident insurance pays benefits if you, and/or any of your eligible dependents die or suffer a covered loss solely as the result of a qualifying accident while traveling on approved Company-paid business. For benefits to be payable, the death or loss must occur within one year of the accident.

The Business Travel Accident Plan includes exposure to the elements after the forced landing, stranding, sinking, or wrecking of a vehicle in which you were traveling on business. A covered person will be presumed to have died, for purposes of this coverage, if in a vehicle which disappears, sinks, or is stranded or wrecked, in the course of a trip, which would be covered by the Business Travel Accident Plan; and the body is not found within a year of the qualifying accident.

Business travel accident insurance includes personal deviations while traveling on Company business. A personal deviation means an activity that:

- Is not reasonably related to the Company's business,
- Is not incidental to the business trip, and
- Occurs prior to the scheduled end of the business travel.

Chargeable vacation time is not considered a personal deviation.

Business travel accident insurance does not cover accidents that occur during your normal commute between your home and assigned work location.

In addition, if you are expected to travel and stay in another city for more than 90 consecutive days, this new location will be considered your assigned work location. At the end of 90 days, you will no longer be considered as traveling on Company business.

LOSSES COVERED UNDER THE BUSINESS TRAVEL ACCIDENT PLAN

Accidental Death and Dismemberment Benefits

Under the Business Travel Accident Plan, the Company will pay accidental death and dismemberment benefits to you and/or your eligible dependents for losses sustained as a result of a qualifying accident based on the following schedule.

If You or Your Eligible Dependent...	Percentage of Coverage Paid Is...
Die	100%
Lose one hand, one foot or the sight of one eye	50%
Lose two or more of the above	100%
Lose speech and hearing (both ears)	100%
Lose speech	50%
Lose hearing (both ears)	50%
Lose the thumb and index finger on the same hand	25%
Become a quadriplegic (total paralysis of both upper and lower limbs)	100%
Become a paraplegic (total paralysis of both upper or lower limbs)	75%
Become a hemiplegic (total paralysis of upper and lower limbs on one side of the body)	50%
Become a uniplegic (total paralysis of one upper or lower limb)	25%

The following table defines precisely the conditions under which benefits will be paid for certain losses.

Loss of...	Means...
A hand	The hand is completely severed at or above the wrist joint.*
A foot	The foot is completely severed at or above the ankle joint.
Sight of an eye	Total and irrecoverable loss of sight.

Loss of...	Means...
Speech	Complete inability to communicate audibly in any degree.
Hearing	Irrecoverable loss of hearing, which cannot be corrected by any hearing aid or device.
The thumb and index finger on the same hand	Severance of the thumb and index finger through or above the joint closest to the wrist.
* In South Carolina, the loss of four whole fingers from one hand equals the loss of one hand.  In California, loss of a thumb and index finger means loss by complete severance of at least one whole phalanx of each.

The maximum payment for all losses from a single accident is 100% of your coverage amount. If you or your eligible dependents sustain multiple losses as the result of an accident, only the largest benefit amount for which you or your eligible dependents are entitled will be paid.

Permanent Total Disability Benefits

If as a result of a qualifying accident, you or your lawful spouse (or domestic partner):

- Become totally disabled within 365 days after the accident,
- Remain totally disabled for 12 continuous months, and
- Are permanently and totally disabled at the end of 12 months,

then you or your lawful spouse (or domestic partner) may also be eligible for the following benefits:

Person Disabled	Business Travel Accident Insurance Benefit Amount
You	Four times your total annual pay , up to a maximum of $3,000,000, minus any other benefits you have already received under this Business Travel Accident Plan for the accident.
Your lawful spouse or domestic partner	$100,000, minus any other benefits already received under this Business Travel Accident Plan for the accident.

The permanent total disability benefit under the Business Travel Accident Plan ends at age 70. However, if your 70th birthday occurs within your 12-month waiting period for disability benefits, and you remain permanently and totally disabled at the end of the 12 months, you would remain eligible for the disability benefits described in this section.

Additional Benefits Provided Under the Business Travel Accident Plan

You and your eligible dependents are eligible for the following additional benefits:

Emergency Medical Evacuation Benefit - An additional amount may be payable if:

- You or your eligible dependents sustain an injury or develop a sickness while traveling 100 miles beyond your home or outside the U.S. on approved Company business,
- The attending doctor states that it is medically necessary to be sent under medical supervision to a different treatment facility, and
- You or your eligible dependents incur expenses for any of the following:
 - Medical services required for transport to a treatment facility,
 - Medical escort services if disabled and a doctor recommends medical supervision,
 - Ambulance services to a treatment facility,
 - Air ambulance services to a treatment facility, or
 - Economy class air transportation from a treatment facility to your home provided the trip takes place within one year of your originally scheduled date to return home. Benefits will be reduced by any refunds paid or payable resulting from your unused transportation tickets.

There is no limit on the amount of this benefit.

Repatriation Benefit - An additional amount may be paid when traveling over 100 miles from your home or outside the U.S. for expenses incurred for the return of your or your eligible dependent's remains after a qualifying accident.

There is no limit on the amount of this benefit.

Seat Belt Benefit - An additional amount may be payable if, as the result of a qualifying accident, you or your eligible dependents lose your life while riding in a private passenger car on approved Company business, and:

- The car was equipped with seat belts at the time of the accident,
- The seat belt was in actual use and properly fastened at the time of the accident, and

- The position of the seat belt is certified in the official report of the accident or by the investigating authority.

A private passenger car means a validly registered four-wheel private passenger car (including Company-owned cars), station wagons, jeeps, pick-up trucks and van-type cars. In the case of a child, seat belt means a child restraint, as required by state law and approved by the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, properly secured and being used as recommended by its manufacturer for children of like age and weight at the time of the accident.

The additional benefit payable will be 10% of the benefit to a maximum of $25,000. If the certification is not available and it is unclear whether the covered person was properly wearing a seat belt, then a fixed benefit of $1,000 will be paid to the designated beneficiary.

Non-Business Travel Coverage Provided Under the Business Travel Accident Plan

In addition to coverage for accidents that occur while traveling on approved Company business, a loss from an accident caused by one of the following circumstances may also qualify you to receive benefits:

- Bomb scare investigations that occur on Company premises when you are authorized and requested by the Company to participate in the investigation or related activity.
- A felonious assault upon you that occurs on a business trip or on the Company premises, or an attempt by another person to commit a crime (robbery, common law or statutory larceny, theft or hijacking) against the property of the Company for which you incur a loss covered under the Business Travel Accident Plan. A felonious assault is an act of violence against you as an employee or custodian of the Company or an act, which reasonably puts you in fear of physical violence to yourself.

Aircraft Coverage Under the Business Travel Accident Plan

If an accident happens while you or your eligible dependents are riding in or getting on or off an aircraft, including Company-owned aircraft, benefits will be paid only if:

- You or your eligible dependents are riding as a passenger, as a pilot or member of the crew,
- The aircraft has a valid certificate of airworthiness, and

- The aircraft is flown by a pilot with a valid license.

Benefits will not be paid under the Business Travel Accident Plan if the aircraft is being used for: crop dusting, spraying or seeding; firefighting; skywriting; sky diving or hang gliding; pipeline or power line inspection; aerial photography or exploration; racing, endurance tests, stunts or acrobatic flying; or any operation that requires a special permit from the FAA, even if it is granted.

The total benefits payable on all covered persons under the Business Travel Accident Plan for one aircraft accident is $30,000,000. If total losses exceed $30,000,000, the benefits paid on each covered person will be reduced proportionately.

LOSSES NOT COVERED UNDER THE BUSINESS TRAVEL ACCIDENT PLAN

Business travel accident insurance does not pay benefits for losses or death caused by or resulting from:

- Suicide or attempted suicide, or whenever a covered person injures himself intentionally, regardless of the individual's psychological state.
- War or acts of war, whether or not declared, except in certain countries as identified by the Insurer (see "Important Contacts").
- Injury while on full-time active duty in any armed forces.
- Committing or attempting to commit a felony.

Other Reasons Your Coverage Will End

In addition, when any of the following happens, you will receive written notice that your coverage (and coverage for your eligible dependents) has ended on the date identified in the notice:

Obtaining Benefits

If a loss occurs, you or your eligible dependent should notify The Life Insurance Company of North America (see "Important Contacts") to request a claim form.

When filing a Business Travel Accident Plan claim, you must submit a written notice of the loss to The Life Insurance Company of North America (see "Important Contacts") no later than 30 days after the loss occurs, or as soon after that as is reasonably possible. You will then receive a claim form. The claim form must be returned no later than 90 days after the loss occurs or ends, or as soon after that as reasonably possible.

If you have not received a claim form within 15 days after the notice of claim, you should send The Life Insurance Company of North America (see "Important Contacts") other proof of loss by the date the claim form would be due. This proof of loss should include written proof of the occurrence, type and amount of loss.

The Life Insurance Company of North America has the right to appoint a physician to examine you as often as it may reasonably require while a claim for benefits is pending. In case of death, The Life Insurance Company of North America also has the right to have an autopsy made, where not prohibited by law.

Any legal action against The Life Insurance Company of North America must be brought no earlier than 60 days after your claim has been filed, and no later than three years (five years in Kansas and six years in South Carolina) after the date the claim form is due.

How Benefits Are Paid

OTHER IMPORTANT INFORMATION

This section contains administrative information about the Business Travel Accident Plan and other details required under the terms of a federal law, the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended (ERISA).

Claim Procedures

Participants, their beneficiaries (if applicable) or any individual duly authorized by them have the right under ERISA and the Business Travel Accident Plan to file a written claim for benefits with the Insurer or Plan Administrator (see “Important Contacts”) as the case may be.

The Plan Administrator (see “Important Contacts”) has the final authority to decide whether you are eligible to participate in the Business Travel Accident Plan. The Insurer (see “Important Contacts”) has the authority to decide the amount and extent of benefits that are payable to you.

You (or another person) cannot challenge a claim decision in court until the following claim and appeal procedures have been complied with and exhausted.

Claim Processing

When the business travel accident benefit is provided or denied, you will receive a notice explaining how the coverage level was calculated or why benefits have been denied. This notice will be provided within 90 days after the Insurer or Plan Administrator (see “Important Contacts”), as the case may be, receives the claim.

If the Insurer or Plan Administrator (see “Important Contacts”), as the case may be, needs more than 90 days to make a decision, a representative will notify you in writing within the initial 90-day period and explain why more time is required. An additional 90 days (for a total of 180 days) may be taken if the Insurer or Plan Administrator, as the case may be, sends this notice. The extension notice will include the date by which the Insurer’s or Plan Administrator’s, as the case may be, decision will be sent.

Appeal Procedures

After the Insurer or Plan Administrator (see “Important Contacts”), as the case may be, denies your claim, you, your dependent, or your authorized representative may request a full review by the Insurer or Plan Administrator, as the case may be, if you disagree with the denial. You, your dependents or your authorized representative must submit a written request for review within 60 days after you receive the denial notice. In connection with your appeal, you (or your authorized representative) may review relevant documents and submit issues and comments in writing. The relevant documents that must be made available to you upon request include documents, records and other information that:

- Were relied on in deciding your benefit claim;
- Were submitted, considered or generated in the course of deciding your benefit claim; or
- Demonstrate that the decision complied with the Business Travel Accident Plan's administrative procedures or safeguards.

If you want to appeal a decision on eligibility for benefits, send your appeal to the Plan Administrator (see "Important Contacts"). All other appeals should be sent to the Insurer (see "Important Contacts").

Your appeal will be reviewed.

After a decision by the Insurer or Plan Administrator, as the case may be, is made concerning your appeal, you will be notified of the findings and decision in writing. This notice will be provided no later than 60 days after receiving the claim.

If special circumstances cause the Insurer or Plan Administrator, as the case may be, to need more than 60 days to make a decision, a representative will notify you in writing within the initial 60-day period and explain why more time is required. An additional 60 days (for a total of 120 days) may be taken if the Insurer or Plan Administrator, as the case may be, sends this notice.

This decision is final and is not subject to further internal review.

Claims Decision Notices

The notice given to you concerning the decision on either your initial claim or your appeal will include:

- The specific reason or reasons for the decision;
- The specific Business Travel Accident Plan provisions upon which the benefit decision is based;
- A statement that you are entitled to receive upon request (and free of charge) reasonable access to, and copies of, all document, records and other information relevant to your claim;
- A description of any additional material or information that is necessary for you to complete your claim and an explanation of why such material or information is necessary;

Your Rights Under ERISA

It is Avaya Inc.'s policy to provide meaningful benefits -- above and beyond your paycheck. Part of this additional protection is provided through the Business Travel Accident Plan. You are entitled to certain rights and protection under ERISA. These rights are described in this section.

Right to Receive Information About the Plan and Its Benefits

It is your right to know about your benefits. Therefore, in addition to this SPD of your benefits under the Business Travel Accident Plan, you will have the opportunity to obtain a summary of the Business Travel Accident Plan's annual financial report. You also may examine all Business Travel Accident Plan documents governing the Business Travel Accident Plan and a copy of the latest annual report (Form 5500 Series) filed with the U.S. Department of Labor. These documents are available for you to examine without charge in the Plan Administrator's office.

You can receive a copy of any of these documents, for a reasonable charge, by making a written request to the Plan Administrator.

Prudent Action by Plan Fiduciaries

You also have the right to expect the fiduciaries -- the people responsible for the operation of the Business Travel Accident Plan -- to act prudently and in the best interest of those who participate as a whole. The Business Travel Accident Plan's fiduciaries must act in the best interest of all Business Travel Accident Plan participants.

No one, including the Company may dismiss you or discriminate against you to prevent you from obtaining benefits or exercising any of your rights under ERISA.

Enforce Your Rights

If your claim for a benefit is denied or ignored, in whole or in part, you have a right to know why this was done, to obtain copies of documents relating to the decision without charge, and to appeal any denial, all within certain time schedules. Under ERISA, there are steps you can take to enforce your ERISA rights. For instance:

- If you request a copy of plan documents or the latest annual report (Form 5500 Series) from the Plan Administrator and do not receive them within 30 days, you may file suit in federal court. In such a case, the court may require the Plan Administrator to provide the materials and pay you up to $110 a day until you receive the materials -- unless the materials were not sent for reasons beyond the control of the Plan Administrator.

- If you have a claim for benefits that is denied or ignored – in whole or in part – after going through the appeals procedures, you may file suit in a state or federal court.
- If you are discriminated against for asserting your ERISA rights, you may seek assistance from the U.S. Department of Labor, or you may file suit in federal court.
- If you file suit against the Business Travel Accident Plan, the court will decide who should pay court costs and legal fees. If you are successful, the court may order the person you sued to pay these costs and fees. If you lose, the court may order you to pay these costs and fees – if, for example, it finds your claim is frivolous.
